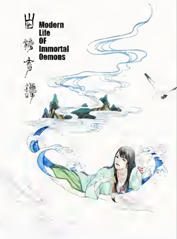
Modern Life OF Immortal Oemons



Long ago, the world was a much different place, filled with magic and mystery.

The world was occupied by many strange animals and creatures - immortals and monsters.

A catlike creature known for its unusual cry was called Tiangou and lived on Mt. Yin.

There was a creature named Luan that lived on Mt. Huchen. Bright and colorful feathers covered the form of a rooster.

Zhu Yin was a spirit that lived onMt. Zhang. With the face of a human and the ruby colored scales of a snake, he could stretch up to a 300 miles long.

Through the years, time brought great changes to the world.

These beings that had once existed vanished into the river of time.

Or perhaps they did not disappear, but hid themselves away...

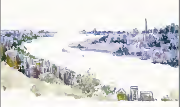
- "Where did little Parrot go?"
- "School."
- "What do you do in school?"
- "Learn things you can't on your own."
- "Does everyone go to school?"
- "Well .."

Perhaps these once powerful creatures live somewhere among us.
Doing something...

Hmm... Quite common.

Boshlake City

June 6, 2016, 5:20 P.M.



Ying Wu

Descended from one of the ancient animals.
Can shapeshift freely between man and beast.

All things considered, they were peaceful days.

However, trouble popped up after a visit from an old friend.

The source of that trouble is Bai, as always.

Bai, who comes from a wealthy family,
is also Ying Wu's high school classmate and landlord.

Ying Wu has decided that his owner is Bai,
based on Bai's exceptional skill in cooking.

Said owner is mild-mannered and studies hard.
If it weren't for his soft heart, he would be perfect.

For example, he is always trying to rescue any alley cat thtat he sees.

"Hmm... soybean sauce, shallots,
cucumber, chili pepper...
Do I need anything else?"

It was a good day.

Everything was going well...

"That sound...
Even after a thousand years, I've never forgotten it..."

"Hey! Don't just barge in here! Wait! Stop!"

"Long time no see, unnncle!!"

The doors will be open. Please remain seated and do not leave the cabin."

Luan, not paying attention and leaves the train.
